Living Fence in Demand

The combination "living fence and wildlife habitat" is in such demand in Missouri that the commission plans to provide over 7,000,000 of the plants for 1960 spring distribution.

This year's distribution of multiflora by counties ranged from 1,000 to 90,000 plants with Dunklin county as top-taker. Twenty-four other counties that ordered a minimum of 30,000 each are: Harrison, Adair, Buchanan, Clinton, Platte, Clay, Jackson, Carroll, Saline, Pettis, Howard, Pike, Boone, St. Charles, St. Louis, Franklin, Crawford, Phelps, Dent, Iron, Texas, Howell, Douglas and Greene.

The total distribution of all forest trees and shrubs this spring included, besides multiflora, 1,105,480 forest trees, 376,340 wildlife and 173,430 quail food and cover plots.

Multiflora is mad available to land owners under the commission's regular tree distribution plan in cooperation with the agriculture extension service.

Application is made in late fall and winter through local county agricultural agents and seedlings are distributed for spring planting.

Multiflora seedlings cost $6.00 a thousand delivered at county seats and in many counties owners can be reimbursed by the AAA program as a local conservation practice.
